RICHMOND DIDN'T LOSE.

SAVED FROM THE FIFTH CONSECU-TIVE DEFEAT BY A TIE.

Tannehill Did Gool Work With the Stick. The Hustlers in a Badly Crippled Comilition.

Five thousand cranks, fans, rooters, and other lovers of bare-ball filled the grand stand, bleacheries, and part of the grounds at West-End Park yesterday evening. The Hustlers and Clams were there to battle with each other for a erounds at West-End Park yesterday evening. The Hustiers and Clams were there to battle with each other for a game.

Richmond was in a badly-crippled condition. Reddy Poster, who gives so much life to a centest, was disabled in Friday's game and Jake had to don the "bird cago" and "bed-tick" and catch the cannon balls from Tannelli. Behne covered first bag in place of the captain, and did it fairly well, too. Johnny Morgan played right field. "Baby" Phillips was in uniform on the beach, ready to jump into the game should be have been needed, but he was not called on Maybe everybody didn't get their money's worth, though the game itself was not a very brilliant affair, but many amusing incidents occurred. Pop Tate and his team of players kicked almost at every play, and they were not much to blaine, either, for Umpire Hoggins, who usually umpires such a nice game, was off. Mr. Hoggins is a mighty good man, and has shown that he did know something about a game of ball, but a man who had never seen a game could have done better than he did yestectiay. Beth teams suffered, but Norfolk got much the worst of the decisions, two of which unquestionably gave the home team a couple of runs. Now, that sort of a thing won't do. Richmond wests nothing but what is due her, and if she gets that every time, with a few changes, we will nall the pennant on our masthead. Both pitchers did good work, and were not badly supported. There was some dumb playing, though, and at times the game dragged awfully. The crowd went wild once. Tannehill knocked the sheepskin over the score sign for a homer, and was cheered all the way around the bases. Then, when Harry Berto crossed the rubber in the same inning, some of the crowd rushed into the field and kept the special officers bays keeping them back.

Corcoran also made a beautiful home run hit over left-field fence; Earley Kain climbed the fence for it, but it availed him naught as the ball was going too nice for the little left-fielder.

Well, the game was lied, and Richmond was raved f

PORTSMOUTH, June 23.—Special.—The Fortsmouths and Roanokes played two genes here this afternoon, both being won by the home team. The first game was won in the first innnig by the Truckers on two singles, a double, and errors by Cavanaugh and Viox. Daly virtually presented the home club with three runs in the eighth by his rank decisions on the leases.

in the eighth by his tank decisions theses.

After an intermission of thirty minutes the second game was started, and was lost to the visitors through errors at critical points of the game. Knox, for the home club, played an excellent game in right. For the visitors the fielding of right. For the visitors the fielding of Padden and Lewis was of a sensational order. Each man made two remarkable catches of apparently safe hits. Van Patton, of Portsmouth, umpired the security and payer general satisfaction.

BALTIMORE, 9: WASBINGTON, 1.

BALTIMORE, MD., June 29.—The Champions took kindly to Mercer's curves to-day, and batted out a victory, and rent him to the bench in the third insing. Malarkey fared little better. A triple four two-baggers and three tingles were made while he officiated. On the other hand, Hemming did not allow more than one hit in any one inning until the ninth, when a three-bagger and a double gave the visitors their only run. The fielding of both teams was sharp, none of the errors being expensive. Hassamer and Keller made circus catches. The baserunning of Jennings and Kelley were also features. Attendance, 4,390e.

CAUSE OF RIORDAN'S DEATH.

Experts Say Concentrated Violence Delivered Externally.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 29.—The sensation at this morning's session, in the trial of Robert Fizsimmons for the death of "Con" Riordan, was in the assertion made on the witness-stand that the direct cause of death was from a blow; "Concentrated violence delivered externally," an expert witness said. This was Dr. Toiram, Police Surgeon of this city, who was called to attend Riordan. Dr. Toiman also performed the autopsy, Fitzsimmons told the Doctor on the night of the tatal blow that he feinted with one hand and hit Blordan in the neck and jaw with the other. Dr. Toiman said he found Riordan's body in good physical condition. One clot of blood had been found in the brain, which weighed 41-3 ounces. The clot showed conclusively that there had been a rupture. Also around the entire base of the skull was a continuous chain of separate blood-clots. The condition of the brain indicated three distinct ruptures of blood vessels. There was no previous diseased condition of Riordan's brain. There was also a lacstation or fracture of a portion of the brain, made up of ion-gitudinal nerve-fibres. The cause of death was blood-clots upon the brain, and rupture of the itssues. In the expert's opinion, the blow upon the plan cause direction and rupture.

There was a sharp fight over hypothetical questions, the rulings in the Euchanan case being followed closely.

The cross-examination of Dr. Toliman was not reached to-day, because of the half-holiday law and a new branch of evidence raised by a hypothetical question. The prosecution asked whether it was a light or heavy blow that must have been given to cause all the havoc in Riordan's brain.

Judge Rosser ruled that in form it was wrong but mijunted that he would al-in Riordan's brain. Objection was taken to the question.

Judge Rosser ruled that in form it was wrong, but intimated that he would allow it when the form was corrected.

The district attorney wanted access to the minutes of the stenographer in order to change it. The defence would not go on with the cross-examination until the question had been answered. They say that it will open up an avalanche of technicalities as to the angle of the blow, its force, the rapidity at which Riordan was advancing, and so on. The adjournment was allowed until Monday.

LYNCHBURG DEFEATED.

The Petersburgs the Wineers by a Score of Tas to hight.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 29.—Special.

—The Petersburgs defeated the Lynchburgs this afternoon by a score of 19 to 6. The home team went all to pieces in the first and fourth innings, allowing the visitors to make five runs with a single hit. They pulled themselves together in the fifth, and played gilt-edge ball, banging the ball over the fence for three beautiful home runs and two singles. Foreman went in the box for the home team, and pitched magnificent ball. If he had been half-way supported, the Lynchburgs would have been shut out easily.

MR, WOODALL RESIGNS,

Senators Go Down Before the Or'oles-Glants and Bridegrooms Tie.

PHILADELPHIA. PA., June 22.-Jack Stivitts' delivery was an easy one for the Phillies this evening. Seventeen hits, for a total of thirty one bases, represented the calamity.

The visitors played a superb game in the field, not an error being charged against them. The Phillies lumped three of their misplays in the third inning, when the Bostons bunched four of their seven hits. A fumble by Sullivan in this inning prevented a possible double play, which would have shat-out Boston. At
